Article 153 When the Company distributes its after-tax profits of the current year, it shall withdraw 10% of the profits as its statutory common reserve fund. Such allocation may be stopped when the statutory common reserve fund of the Company has accumulated to over 50% of the registered capital of the Company. If the statutory common reserve fund is insufficient to make up for the losses of the preceding year, the profits of the current year shall first be used to make up for the said losses before any statutory common reserve fund is withdrawn as per the preceding paragraph. After statutory common reserve fund is withdrawn out of the after-tax profits, discretionary common reserve fund may also be withdrawn out of the same as per a resolution made at a general meeting. After the Company has made up its losses and made allocations to its statutory reserve fund, the remaining profits are distributed in proportion to the number of shares held by the shareholders, save for distribution which is not made in proportion to shareholdings as specified in the Articles of Association. If the shareholders' general meeting violates the above provisions by distributing profits to the shareholders before the Company makes up losses and allocates funds to the statutory reserves, then the profits so distributed must be returned to the Company by the shareholders. The shares of the Company held by the Company shall not participate in to profit distribution. Where the Board agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, it shall serve a notice of such meeting within five days after the resolution is made by the Board. Where the Board does not agree to convene the extraordinary general meeting as proposed by the independent directors, it shall give the reasons and make an announcement in respect thereof.

Article 9 The Audit Committee shall be entitled to propose to the Board to convene an extraordinary general meeting, and shall put forward its proposal to the Board in writing. The Board shall, pursuant to laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, give a written reply on whether or not to convene the extraordinary general meeting within 10 days after receipt of the proposal.

Where the Board agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, it shall serve a notice of such meeting within five days after the resolution is made by the Board. Any change to the original proposal set forth in the notice shall be subject to approval by the Audit Committee.

If the Board does not agree to convene the extraordinary general meeting or fails to give a written reply within 10 days after receipt of the proposal, the Board shall be deemed as unable to or failing to perform the duty of convening the general meeting, and the Audit Committee may convene and preside over the meeting by itself.

Article 10 An extraordinary general meeting may be convened upon request by shareholders severally or jointly holding more than 10% shares (including preferred shares with restored voting rights, but excluding treasury shares) of the Company to the Board, and such request shall be put forward to the Board in writing. The Board shall, pursuant to laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, give a written reply on whether or not to convene the extraordinary general meeting within 10 days after receipt of the request.

Where the Board agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, it shall serve a notice of such meeting within five days after the resolution is made by the Board. Any change to the original request set forth in the notice shall be subject to approval by the relevant shareholders.

If the Board does not agree to convene the extraordinary general meeting or fails to give a reply within 10 days after receipt of the request, shareholders severally or jointly holding more than 10% shares (including preferred shares with restored voting rights, but excluding treasury shares) of the Company shall be entitled to propose to the Audit Committee to convene an extraordinary general meeting, and shall put forward such request to the Audit Committee in writing.

If the Audit Committee agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, it shall serve a notice of such meeting within five days after receipt of such request. Any change to the original proposal set forth in the notice shall be approved by the relevant shareholders.

In case of failure to issue the notice of the general meeting within the term stipulated, the Audit Committee shall be deemed as failing to convene and preside over the general meeting. As a result of its failure to do so for more than 90 consecutive days, shareholder(s) severally or jointly holding more than 10% shares (including preferred shares with restored voting rights, but excluding treasury shares) of the Company may convene and preside over such meeting by himself/themselves.

Article 11 Where the Audit Committee or shareholder(s) decide(s) to convene a general meeting by itself/themselves, it/they shall notify the Board in writing and file with the Stock Exchange at the same time.

Before the resolution of the general meeting, the shareholders' shareholding ratio (including preferred shares with restored voting rights, but excluding treasury shares) shall not be less than 10%.

When the Audit Committee and the convening of the shareholders decide to send a notice of the general meeting of shareholders and the announcement of the resolution of the general meeting, they shall also submit the relevant certification materials to the local stock exchange at the same time.

Article 12 With regard to the general meeting convened by the Audit Committee or shareholders on its/their own initiative, the Board and its secretary or the secretary of the company shall offer cooperation.

The Board shall provide a shareholders' register as of the equity registration date. Where the Board fails to provide the shareholders' register, the convener may apply to the securities registration and clearing authority to obtain it upon presentation of the announcement relating to the notice of the general meeting. The shareholders' register obtained by the convener shall not be used for other

Proposals not set out in the notice of general meeting or not complying with the article 14 of the rule shall not be voted on or resolved at the general meeting.

Article 16 When the Company convenes a general meeting, the convener shall notify the Shareholders by way of announcement at least 21 days before the date of the annual general meeting, and for an extraordinary general meeting, the Shareholders shall be notified by way of announcement at least 15 days before the date of the meeting.

The duration of the aforesaid notice of the general meeting shall not include the date on which then announcement is published and meeting is convened.

If there are any special requirements by the rules of stock exchange(s) of the place(s) where the Company's shares are listed, such requirements shall prevail.

Article 17 Notice of the general meeting includes the following:

- (I) The time, venue and duration of the meeting;
- (II) Matters and proposals that shall be submitted to the meeting for consideration;
- (III) Contains a clear statement that all ordinary shareholders(including preferred stock shareholders with voting rights restored)) entitled to attend such meeting and may appoint proxies in writing to attend and vote at such meeting on his behalf and that such proxy need not be a shareholder of the Company;
- (IV) It shall state the shareholding registration date of the shareholders who are entitled to attend the meeting;
- (V) The names and telephone numbers of the standing contact persons for the meeting;
- (VI) The time and procedure for voting online or through other means.

Notice and supplementary notice of the general meeting of shareholders shall fully and completely disclose the specific content of all the proposals, and all the information or explanations required to make reasonable judgments on the matters to be discussed.

Article 18 If the election of directors is proposed to be discussed at a general meeting, the notice of such meeting shall adequately disclose the detailed information of the director candidates, which information shall at least include:

- (I) Personal particulars, including educational background, work experiences, and concurrent positions;
- (II) Whether one has any related connection with the company, its controlling shareholders and effective controllers;
- (III) The amount of shares of the listing company one holds;

(IV) Whether one has been punished by CSRC or any other relevant department or reprimanded by the stock exchange.

Unless a director is elected via the cumulative voting system, each candidate for director shall be proposed via a single proposal.

Article 19 There shall be not more than 7 business days in the notice of the general meeting between the date of record and the date of the general meeting. The rules of stock exchange(s) in the place where the shares of the Company are listed provide otherwise, such provisions shall be followed. The date of record shall not be changed once determined.

Article 20 After a notice of general meeting is provided, the general meeting shall not be postponed or cancelled, and the proposals set out in the notice of general meeting shall not be cancelled without due reason. Once the meeting is postponed or cancelled, the convener shall make an announcement and explain the reasons at least two working days prior to the scheduled meeting date. If the rules of stock exchange(s) in the place where the Company's shares are listed contain any other

Article 23 The board of directors and the other conveners shall take necessary measures to ensure the normal order of the general meeting. The company will take measures to prevent the interference of the general meeting, affray and violations of the legitimate rights and interests of the shareholders and report the situation(s) to the relevant departments to investigate immediately.

Article 24 The shareholders may attend general meetings and exercise the voting rights by themselves, or they can also entrust a proxy to attend the meetings and exercise the voting rights within their authorization.

All ordinary shareholders (including preferred stock shareholders with voting rights restored, but excluding treasury shares) or their proxies registered on the date of registration shall have the right to attend and vote at the general meeting in accordance with relevant laws, regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 25 In the event that an individual shareholder attends a general meeting in person, he shall present his/her own identity card or other valid documents or proof capable of identifying himself/herself. In the event that a proxy attends the meeting for someone else, he shall present his/her own valid identity documents and the power of attorney from the shareholder.

For a legal person shareholder, its legal representative or a proxy appointed by such legal representative shall attend the meeting. In the event that the legal representative attends the meeting, he shall present his/her own identity card or valid proof capable of proving that he/she has the status as a legal representative. In the event that the proxy attends the meeting, he/she shall present his/her own identity card and the written power of attorney issued by the legal representative of the legal person shareholder according to laws.

Article 26 The power of attorney issued by a shareholder to appoint another person to attend a general meeting shall contain the following particulars:

- (I) the name or designation of the principal, the class and number of shares held in the company;
- (II) the name or designation of the proxy.;
- (III) specific instructions from the shareholder to vote in favour of or against, or to abstain from voting on each matter set out on the agenda of the general meeting;
- (IV) the signing date and validity of the power of attorney;
- (V) the signature (or seal) of the principal. If the principal is a legal person shareholder, the seal of the legal entity shall also be affixed.

Article 27 Such instrument shall state whether the proxy, in the absence of any specific instructions from the shareholder, may vote as he thinks fit. If no instructions are given, the proxy shall be deemed to have the discretion to vote as he/she thinks fit.

Article 28 In the event that the power of attorney is signed by other persons authorized by the principal, the power of attorney authorizing the signatures or other authorization documents shall be notarized. Notarized power of attorney or other authorization documents together with the proxy forms shall be made available at the Company's domicile or elsewhere specified in the notice of meeting.

In the event that the principal is a legal person, its legal representative or board of directors, or other person authorized by the resolution of its decision-making body shall represent it at the general meeting of the Company.

If the shareholder is a Recognized Clearing House (or its agent), the said shareholder may authorize one or more persons as he deems appropriate to act on his behalf at any general meeting; however, where several persons are thus authorized, the power of attorney shall specify the numbers and classes of shares involved by the said persons. The power of attorney shall be signed by the respective proxies appointed by the Recognized Clearing House. The persons thus authorized may attend the meetings and exercise rights on behalf of the Recognized Clearing House as if the said persons were the natural person shareholders of the Company.

Article 29 If the relevant documents above submitted by the attendants are under any of the following circumstances, the qualification for attending the meeting shall be deemed to be invalid:

- (1) The identification information submitted by the principal or attendants by proxy is false or unidentifiable;
- (2) The sample of the power of attorney registered by fax is obviously inconsistent with the sample of the signed power of attorney submitted when actually attending the meeting;
- (3) None of principal or proxy has signed the power of attorney, or the signature does not meet the requirements;
- (4) The relevant documents submitted by the principal or the person attending the meeting on his/her behalf have other obvious violations of the relevant provisions of the laws, administrative regulations, the Articles of Association or the Rules.

Article 30 The principal and his/her proxy shall assume corresponding legal consequences for the principal's or his/her proxy's ineligibility to attend the meeting because the principal authorizes unclearly or the certificate submitted by his or her proxy to prove the principal's legal identity or the entrustment relationship and other relevant documents fail to meet the provisions of the laws, regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 31 A registration record for attendants at the meeting shall be compiled by the Company. The registration record shall contain the names of attendants (or names of organizations), identity card numbers, the number of voting shares held or represented by each attendant and names (or name of organizations) of the proxies.

Article 32 The convener(s) and lawyers engaged by the Company shall jointly verify the validity of shareholders' qualifications based on the members registration list offered by the securities registration and clearing institution, and shall register names of shareholders and the number of voting shares they hold. The registration for the meeting shall be terminated before the presider of the meeting announces the number of shareholders and proxies present at the meeting as well as the total number of voting shares they hold. If the rules of stock exchange(s) of the place where the company's shares are listed have other provisions on the verification of the legality of shareholder qualifications, such provisions shall prevail.

Registration for the meeting shall end before the chairman of the meeting announces the number of shareholders and proxies physically present at the meeting, as well as the total number of voting shares held by them.

Article 33 Where the general meeting requires directors or senior management to attend, such directors or senior management shall attend the meeting and respond to shareholders' questions. Subject to the rules of the stock exchange(s) on which the Company's shares are listed, the aforementioned persons may attend or be present at the meeting via the internet, video, telephone or any other means of equivalent effect.

Article 34 The chairman of the board of directors shall preside over the general meeting. If the chairman is unable or fails to perform his duties, the deputy chairman (If the company has two or more deputy chairmen, the meeting shall be chaired by the deputy chairman jointly elected by a majority of the directors.) shall convene and preside the meeting. In the event that the deputy chairman is unable or fails to perform his duties, a director shall be elected by a simple majority of directors to preside the meeting.

A general meeting convened by the Audit Committee itself shall be presided over by the chairman of the Audit Committee. If the chairman of the Audit Committee cannot or does not fulfil the duty thereof, more than half of the member of Audit Committee may elect a member to preside over the meeting.

A general meeting convened by the shareholders themselves shall be presided over by convener or a representative elected by the convener.

When a general meeting is held and the presider violates these rules which makes it difficult for the general meeting to continue, a person may be elected at the general meeting to act as the presider, subject to the approval of more than half of the attending shareholders with voting rights.

Article 35 The Board shall report their work in the preceding year at the annual general meeting. Also, every independent director should give a work report.

Article 36 Directors and senior management staff should make interpretation and illustration according to the queries of shareholders.

Article 37 The presider shall, prior to voting, declare the number of attending shareholders and their proxies as well as the total number of their voting shares, and the number of attending shareholders and their proxies and the total number of their voting shares shall be as recorded in the meeting's register.

Article 38 The convener shall ensure the general meeting of shareholders is held without adjournment until the final resolution is reached. Where special reasons such as force majeure and so on

- (VI) Other matters as prescribed in the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the rules of stock exchange(s) of the place where the Company's shares are listed or the Articles of Association as well as any other matters considered by an ordinary resolution at a general meeting that it may have material impact on the Company and accordingly shall be approved by a special resolution.

Article 42 Shareholders (including proxies thereof) shall exercise their voting rights as per the number of voting shares they represent. Each share carries the right to one vote.

The general meetings should consider significant matters affecting the interests of small investors; the voting of small investors should be counted separately. And the results shall be disclosed publicly timely. Where the rules of stock exchange(s) of the place where the Company's shares are listed have other provisions on the separate voting of small and medium-sized investors, such provisions shall prevail.

The Company has no voting right for the shares it holds, and such shares shall be excluded from the total number of voting shares represented by the shareholders attending the general meeting.

Shareholders, who purchase the voting shares of the Company in violation of provisions of the first clause and the second clause of Article 63 of the Securities Law, shall not exercise the voting rights of the shares that exceed the prescribed ratio within 36 months after purchasing them, and such shares shall not be included in the total number of shares with voting rights at a general meeting.

The board of directors of the company, independent directors and shareholders holding 1% or more shares with voting rights or investor protection agencies established pursuant to laws, administrative regulations or the provisions of CSRC can openly solicit the voting right of the shareholders. The purpose and information of soliciting the voting right of the shareholders should be fully disclosed. Prohibit paying or in any disguised form of compensation to solicit the voting right from the shareholders. Save for statutory conditions, the company shall not limit the minimum shareholding percentage on soliciting the voting right.

Pursuant to the rules of the stock exchange(s) of the place where the Company's shares are listed, whereas any shareholder is required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or restricted to voting only for or against any particular resolution, any vote cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

Article 43 When the general meeting considers matters relating to related parties transactions, the related shareholders shall not participate in the voting, and the number of the voting shares represented by them shall not be counted into the total number of valid voting shares; and a public announcement of the resolutions of the general meeting shall be made to fully disclose the way of voting of unrelated shareholders.

For approval of related party transactions at the Company's general meeting, the related shareholders shall, prior to the approval at the general meeting, actively submit the application for recusal; the unrelated shareholders shall have the right to submit the application for recusal against the related shareholders to the general meeting prior to approval of the relevant case at the general meeting. Such application shall be submitted in written form and indicate the reasons thereof. Prior to approval of the relevant case at the general meeting, examination and approval of such application shall be made first.

After conclusion of the general meeting, in the event any other shareholder finds that the relevant shareholder participates in voting of related party transaction, or has objection on whether a recusal shall apply, it shall have the right to bring a suit in accordance with the regulations of the Articles of Association. Where the related shareholders clearly indicate recusal, other shareholders who attend the general meeting shall put the relevant case for examination and approval. The voting results and other resolutions passed at the general meeting are equally valid.

Article 44 The Company shall not enter into any contract with anyone other than a director, president or other senior management to have all or a significant part of the Company's business in the care of the said person except under special circumstances such as where the Company is in a crisis, unless prior approval obtained by shareholders at a general meeting by way of special resolution.

Article 45 The list of candidate of directors shall be submitted to the general meeting as a proposal for voting. The method and procedures for nomination of directors are as follows:

- (I) The board of directors and shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding more than 1% of the Company's shares shall nominate candidate(s) for director(s);
- (II) The board of directors, Audit Committee and shareholder(s) independently or jointly holding more than 1% of the Company's shares shall nominate candidate(s) for independent director(s). The Investor Protection Organization established according to law may publicly request the shareholders to exercise the right to nominate the independent directors on its behalf;
- (III) The employee representative director on the board of directors is elected by the employees' representative assembly;
- (IV) When the shareholders nominate director(s) and independent director(s), the nomination proposal, details of the nominated candidates, declaration or undertaking of the candidate shall be submitted to the board of directors 10 days before convening the general meeting. If there are any special requirements by the rules of stock exchange(s) of the place(s) where the Company's shares are listed, such requirements shall prevail.

The board of directors shall issue an announcement or a circular on the biography and basic information of the candidate for director(s) to the shareholders, and the notice period for the announcement and circular shall comply with the regulations and requirements of the rules of stock exchange(s) of the place where the shares of the Company are listed.

When voting on the election of director(s) at the general meeting, the cumulative voting system may be used in accordance with the requirements of the rules of stock exchange(s) of the place where the shares are listed, provisions of the Articles of Association or the resolutions at the general meeting. Under the cumulative voting system, the election of independent directors shall be conducted separately from that of other members of the board of directors. When electing two or more directors, the cumulative voting system shall be implemented. Where the cumulative voting system is implemented in electing directors, the voting of the independent directors shall be conducted separately from that of the non-independent directors.

Cumulative voting mentioned in the preceding paragraph means that when directors are being elected at a general meeting, each share has as many voting rights as the candidates for directors, and the shareholders' voting rights may be used in a concentrated manner.

Article 46 Save under the cumulative voting system, the general meeting shall resolve on all the proposals separately; in the event of several proposals for the same issue, such proposals shall be voted on and resolved in the order of time at which they are submitted. Unless the general meeting is adjourned or no resolution can be made for special reasons such as force majeure, voting of such proposals shall neither be shelved nor refused at the general meeting.

Article 47 No amendment shall be made to a proposal when it is considered at a general meeting, otherwise, the relevant amendment shall be deemed as a new proposal and shall not be voted on at the general meeting.

Article 48 The same voting right can only be exercised in only one form: onsite, over the network, or otherwise. Where the same voting right is exercised more than once, the voting result of the first time shall prevail.

Article 49 Voting at the general meeting shall record the names of the voters.

Article 50 When proposals are voted on at the general meeting, two shareholders' representatives shall be appointed to count, and monitor counting of, the votes. Where any shareholder has interests in any issue considered, the said shareholder or proxy thereof shall not participate in counting and monitoring of ballots.

When proposals are voted on at the general meeting, the lawyer, shareholders' representative shall be jointly responsible for the counting and monitoring of the ballots. The voting results shall be announced on the spot and recorded in the meeting minutes.

Shareholders of listed companies or proxies thereof voting over the network or otherwise shall have the right to check their voting results via the corresponding voting system.

Article 51 A general meeting shall not conclude earlier at the venue than over the network or otherwise, and the presider shall announce the voting result of every proposal and announce whether the proposal is passed or not according to the voting result.

Before the voting result is announced, the relevant parties including the listed company, counting officer, monitoring officer, shareholders and network service provider involved at the venue, over the network or otherwise shall have the confidentiality obligation.

Article 52 Shareholders (including proxies) present at a general meeting shall express one of the following opinions on a proposal submitted for voting: being in favour of, being against or abstaining from voting, except for the declaration by securities registration and clearing institution as the nominal holder of the stocks of stock connect mechanism between the mainland China and Hong Kong stock markets, based on the actual holders' intentions.

Uncompleted paper ballots, wrongly completed paper ballots, paper ballots with illegible characters and uncast paper ballots shall be deemed as voters abstaining from their voting rights. The voting results of the shares they hold shall be counted as "abstained".

Article 53 In the event that the chairman of a meeting has any doubt towards the results of a resolution submitted for voting, he may arrange the counting of the votes cast; in the event that the chairman of the meeting has not counted the votes but shareholders or their proxies present at the meeting disagree with the results announced by the chairman, they shall have the right to request vote counting immediately after the voting results are announced. The chairman shall immediately arrange the counting of votes.

Article 54 Resolutions of the general meeting shall be announced in due time in accordance with the rules of stock exchange(s) of the stock exchange where the Company's shares are publicly traded. The announcement shall specify the number of attending shareholders and their proxies, the total number of voting shares they represent and the proportion of these shares to the total number of the voting shares of the Company, the voting method, the voting result for every proposal and the details of each of the resolutions passed.

Statistics on the attendance and the voting of A Shareholders and H Shareholders shall be kept on an individual basis, and announced accordingly.

Article 55 Where a proposal has not been passed or the resolutions of the preceding general meeting have been changed at the current general meeting, special mention shall be made in the announcement of the resolutions of the general meeting.

Article 56 If the general meeting approves a proposal on the election of a director, the newly elected director shall take office on the date the general meeting adopts the resolution, unless otherwise provided in the general meeting resolution.

Article 57 Where a proposal on cash dividends, bonus shares or increase of share capital by way of transfer from capital reserves, the Company shall implement the specific scheme within two months after conclusion of the general meeting.

Article 58 Where a company repurchases common shares for the purpose of reducing its registered capital by issuing preferred shares to the public, or repurchases common shares from specific shareholders by issuing preferred shares to specific objects as the means of payment, any resolution of the general meeting on the repurchase of common shares must be approved by shareholders representing at least two-thirds of the voting rights present at the meeting.

The company shall announce the resolution on the repurchase of common shares on the day following the date on which the general meeting adopts such resolution.

Article 59 Any content of a resolution approved at the general meeting of the Company will be invalid if it violates the laws and administrative regulations.

The controlling shareholder and de facto controller of the company shall not restrict or obstruct the exercise of voting rights by minority investors in accordance with the law, and shall not harm the legitimate rights and interests of the company and minority investors.

If the procedures for convening a general meeting or the voting methods violate the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association or the contents of any resolution violate the Articles of Association, the shareholders may request the competent people's court to withdraw it within 60 days from the date when such resolution is made. However, this does not apply if there are only minor defects in the meeting convening procedures or voting methods of the general meeting, which do not have a substantial impact on the resolution.

If the board of directors, shareholders or any other relevant party disputes the convener's qualification, the convening procedure, the legality of the proposals, or the validity of the general meeting resolution, it shall promptly file a suit with the People's Court. Before the People's Court renders a judgment or ruling to revoke the resolution or otherwise, the relevant parties shall implement the resolution. The company, its directors and senior officers shall faithfully perform their duties, execute the general meeting resolution without delay and ensure the normal operation of the company.

Where the People's Court has rendered a judgment or ruling on the relevant matter, the company shall, in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, and the provisions of the China Securities Regulatory Commission and the stock exchange, fulfill its information-disclosure obligations, fully explain the impact, and actively cooperate in the implementation of the judgment or ruling after it takes effect. If the matter involves the correction of a previous event, the company shall handle it promptly and discharge the corresponding information-disclosure obligations.

Chapter 6 Minutes of General Meeting and Archives Management

Article 60 Minutes of a general meeting shall be kept by the Secretary of the Board.

The minutes of the meeting shall specify:

- (I) the date, venue and agenda of the meeting, and the name of the convener;
- (II) the names of the presider, the directors, and senior executives present at the meeting;
- (III) the number of shareholders and proxies attending the meeting, the total number of voting shares they represent and the proportion of these shares to the total number of shares of the Company;
- (IV) the process of discussion in respect of each proposal, highlights of speeches and the voting result;
- (V) details of the inquiries or suggestions of the shareholders, and the corresponding responses or explanations;

(VI) the names of the lawyer, counting officer and monitoring officer;

(VII) other contents that shall be recorded in the minutes in accordance with the Articles of Association.

Article 61 The attending or present directors, Secretary of the Board, convener or representative thereof, and preside shall sign the minutes of the meeting and ensure the contents of the minutes are true, accurate and complete. The minutes of the meeting, the signed attendance record of those shareholders on the spot and the power of attorney for attendance by proxy, and the valid information relating to the voting over network or by other means shall be kept for 10 years.

Chapter 7 Authorization of General Meeting to the Board of Directors

Article 62 Without violation of laws, administrative regulations, department rules, the Listed Rules and the Articles of Association, the general meeting may pass a resolution to authorize the board of directors.

Article 63 Matters which, as required by laws, administrative regulations, the Listing Rules and the Articles of Association, shall be resolved at general meetings shall be considered and reviewed at general meetings so as to protect the decision-making rights of shareholders of the Company on such matters. Under necessary and reasonable circumstances, the general meeting may authorize the board of directors to decide, within the scope of authorization as delegated at the general meeting, specific issues relating to matters to be resolved on by the general meeting which may not be decided upon immediately at a general meeting.

For any authorization granted to the board of directors by the general meeting, the matter involved shall be approved by shareholders (including their proxies) representing more than one-half of the voting rights present at the general meeting if it constitutes an ordinary resolution, or by shareholders (including their proxies) representing more than two-thirds of the voting rights present at the general meeting if it constitutes a special resolution. The contents of the authorization shall be clearly specified in details.

Article 64 When making decisions on authorized matters, the board of directors shall conduct sufficient discussions and demonstrations, and if necessary, employ an intermediary institution to provide consultation opinions to ensure the scientificity and rationality of the decision-making matters.

Chapter 8 Supplementary Provisions

Article 65 Unless otherwise stated, the terms used in the Rules shall have the same meaning with those in the Articles of Association.

Article 66 For the purposes of these Rules, any “announcement,” “notice” or “supplementary notice of the general meeting” means the disclosure of the relevant information on the media and the stock-exchange website that meet the conditions specified by the China Securities Regulatory Commission.

Article 67 For the purpose of the Rules, the terms “above”, “within” are inclusive terms and the terms “exceeding”, “below” and “more than” are exclusive terms.

Article 68 The matters uncovered in the Rules shall be performed in accordance with the provisions of relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, other relevant regulatory documents and the rules of stock exchange(s) of the place where the shares of Company are listed. If the provisions of the Rules are conflict with those of relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, other relevant regulatory documents and the rules of stock exchange(s) of the place where the shares of Company are listed, the provisions of relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, other relevant regulatory documents and the rules of stock exchange(s) of the place where the shares of Company are listed shall prevail.

Article 69 These rules shall be subject to interpretation by the Board of the Company as an appendix of Articles of Association.

Article 70 These rules shall come into effect upon deliberation and approval of the general meeting of the Company. Upon the effectiveness of these Rules, the company’s original Rules of Procedure for the Shareholders’ General Meeting shall automatically cease to apply.

The English version of this appendix is an unofficial translation of its Chinese version. In case of any discrepancies, the Chinese version shall prevail.

The Company shall remove a director and remove the individual from duty if any of the circumstances stated in this Article applies during his term of office.

Article 4 Directors shall be elected and changed by the shareholders at general meetings and can be removed from office before the end of term of office. The directors shall serve a term of three years and may serve consecutive terms if reelected upon the expiration of their terms, save as otherwise provided in relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the rules of the stock exchange(s) of the place where the shares of the Company are listed.

The term of office of a director shall commence from the date of appointment until the expiry of the current session of the board of directors. If the term of office of a director expires but re-election is not made, the existing director shall continue to perform their duties in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the rules of stock exchange(s) of the place where the shares of the Company are listed and the provisions of the Articles of Association until a new director is elected and assumes office.

A director's post may be assumed by senior management members. But the total number of the directors who also serve as senior management members and the directors as staff representative, shall not exceed one half of the total number of directors.

The Company shall have one director who is a workers' representative. The workers' director shall be elected and removed by the Company's employees through the Workers' Representative Congress; no submission to the general meeting is required.

Article 5 Directors shall comply with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, and shall fulfill obligations to the Company. They shall take measures to avoid any conflict between their personal interests and those of the Company, and shall not abuse their position to seek improper gain.

The director shall fulfill obligations to the Company as follows:

- (I) not to embezzle the Company's property or misappropriate its funds;
- (II) not to set up accounts in his/her own name or in the name of any other person for the purpose of depositing any of the funds of the Company;
- (III) not to abuse their position to offer or accept bribes or to receive any other illegal income;
- (IV) no director, directly or indirectly, conclude a contract or otherwise transact with the Company unless first reported the matter to the board of directors or the general meeting and the transaction has been approved by the Board or the general meeting in accordance with the Articles of Association;
- (V) no director may take advantage of his or her position to secure, for himself/herself or for any other person, any commercial opportunity that belongs to the Company, except where:
 - the matter has been reported to the board of directors or the general meeting and approved by the general meeting, or
 - the Company is unable to exploit the opportunity under any law, administrative regulation or the provisions of these Articles of Association;
- (VI) no director may, either on his or her own account or for any other person, engage in any business that is of the same nature as that of the Company unless he or she has first reported the matter to the board of directors or general meeting and the engagement has been approved by the general meeting;
- (VII) not to misappropriate commissions derived from transactions entered into by the Company;
- (VIII) not to disclose confidential information of the Company without authorization;
- (IX) not to damage the interests of the Company by taking advantage of his/her connections with the Company;
- (X) other faithful obligations as required by the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the rules of stock exchange(s) of the place where the shares of the Company are listed and the Articles of Association.

Income gained by Directors in violation of this provision shall belong to the Company; if any losses are caused to the Company thereby, Directors shall bear the appropriate liabilities for damages.

The following persons entering into a contract or otherwise transacting with the Company shall be subject to the provisions of Item (4), Paragraph 2 of this Article:

- the close relatives of any director or senior management;
- any enterprise directly or indirectly controlled by a director or senior officer, or by any of their close relatives; and
- any other affiliated person who has an additional connection with a director or senior management.

Article 6 Directors shall, in accordance with applicable laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, perform responsibilities of diligence to the Company. In performing their duties, directors shall act in the best interests of the Company and exercise the level of reasonable care that a prudent manager would ordinarily exercise under similar circumstances.

Directors perform following responsibilities of diligence to the Company:

- (I) shall exercise the rights conferred by the Company with due discretion, care and diligence to ensure the business operations of the Company comply with the state's laws, administrative regulations and economic policies, not going beyond the scope of business specified in the Company's business license;
- (II) shall treat all shareholders fairly;
- (III) shall stay abreast of the operations and management of businesses of the Company;
- (IV) shall provide signatory confirmation for the periodic reports of the Company; ensure that the information disclosed by the Company is true, accurate, and complete;
- (V) shall truthfully provide relevant information and data to the Audit Committee of the Company, and shall not obstruct the Audit Committee from performing their duties;
- (VI) shall perform other responsibilities of diligence stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the rules of stock exchange(s) of the place where the shares of the Company are listed and the Articles of Association.

Article 7 If a director fails to attend meeting of the board of directors in person and fails to appoint any other director to attend on his behalf for two consecutive times, he shall be deemed to be unable to perform his duties, and the board of directors shall propose to the general meeting for replacement.

Article 8 A director may resign prior to the expiry of his term of service. When a director intends to resign, he shall submit a written resignation to the Company. The resignation shall take effect on the date the company receives the resignation letter, and the company will disclose the relevant information within two trading days.

In the event that the resignation of any Director during his term of office results in the number of members of the Board being less than the statutory minimum requirement, the existing Directors shall continue to perform their duties in accordance with the law, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the rules of stock exchange(s) of the place where the shares of the Company are listed and the Articles of Association until the re-elected Directors assume their office.

Article 9 When a director's resignation takes effect or when his term of service expires, the director shall complete all handover procedures with the board of directors. His or her fiduciary duty to the Company and the shareholders shall not, as a matter of course, terminate at the end of his or her term of office and shall continue in effect for a period of three years after the effective date of his resignation as a director or after the expiration of his term of office. However, the director's obligation to maintain the confidentiality of the Company's trade secrets shall survive until such secrets enter the public domain instead of being limited to three years. A director's liability arising from the performance of his or her duties during the term of office shall not be released or extinguished by resignation or departure.

Article 10 The general meeting may resolve to remove a director, and such removal shall take effect on the date the resolution is adopted. If a director is removed without just cause before the expiration of his or her term, the director is entitled to claim compensation from the Company.

Article 11 Unless otherwise duly authorized under these Articles of Association or by the board of directors, no director shall act in his personal capacity on behalf of the Company or the board of directors. When a director acts in his personal capacity, but a third party may reasonably believe that the director is acting for the Company or the board of directors, that director shall declare his position and capacity in advance.

Article 12 When a director, in performing his or her duties on behalf of the Company, causes damage to any third party, the Company shall be liable for the resulting loss; if the director acted with intent or gross negligence, he or she shall also be jointly liable for the damage.

Article 33 Independent Directors shall continue to strengthen the study of securities laws, regulations and rules, and continuously improve their ability to perform their duties.

Chapter 4 Duty Performance Guarantee

Article 34 The Company shall provide the necessary working conditions and personnel support for Independent Directors for effective functioning of their authorities, and designate special departments and special personnel such as the office of the board of directors and the secretary to the board of directors to assist Independent Directors to perform their duties.

The secretary to the board of directors shall ensure effective flow of information between the Independent Directors and other directors, senior management and other relevant persons, and ensure that the Independent Directors would be provided with sufficient resources and necessary professional advice to perform their duties.

APPENDIX IV WORKING RULES FOR INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS

Article 35 The Company shall ensure to grant right to know to Independent Directors that are the same with other directors. In order to ensure that the Independent Directors perform their duties effectively, the Company shall regularly report the Company's operation and provide information to the Independent Directors, organize or cooperate with the Independent Directors in carrying out on-site inspection.

The Company may organize Independent Directors to participate in analysis and discussions before the board of directors considers major and complicated matters, so as to fully listen to the views of the Independent Directors and provide timely feedback to the Independent Directors on the adoption of their views.

Article 36 The Company shall give notices of board meetings to Independent Directors in a timely manner, provide relevant meeting information no later than the notice period for board meetings stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, the provisions of the CSRC, the rules of the stock exchange(s) on which the shares of the Company are listed or the Articles of Association, and provide Independent Directors with an effective channel of communication; where a meeting of the special committee of the board of directors is convened, the Company shall provide relevant data and information no later than three days prior to the convening of the meeting of the special committee of the board of directors in principle. The Company shall keep the above meeting information for at least ten years.

If two or more Independent Directors consider that meeting documents are incomplete and the rationales are inadequate or the provision is not timely, they may propose in writing to the board of directors to postpone the convening of the meeting or postpone the consideration of the matter, and the board of directors shall adopt such proposal.

The meetings of the board of directors and its special committees shall in principle be held on-site. When necessary, they may be held by means of video, telephone, or other communication methods, provided that all participating Directors are able to fully communicate and express their opinions.

Article 37 When Independent Directors perform their duties, related staff of the Company, including directors and senior management shall cooperate and shall not refuse, obstruct or conceal relevant information and not interfere with their independent performance.

If Independent Directors face impediments when exercising their functions and powers according to law, they may explain the circumstances to the board of directors, request cooperation from the directors, senior management and other relevant staff, and record the specific circumstances of the impediments and the resolution in their work record; if the impediments still cannot be removed, they may be reported to the CSRC and the stock exchange.

If the performance of duties by an Independent Director involves information that should be disclosed, the Listed Company shall handle the disclosure in a timely manner; if the Listed Company refuses to disclose such information, the Independent Director may directly apply for disclosure or report the matter to the CSRC and the stock exchange.

Article 38 All expenses on hiring agency and exercising of authorities (such as official trip and communication cost) by Independent Directors shall be paid by the Company.

Article 39

IMPLEMENTATION RULES OF CUMULATIVE VOTING SYSTEM OF FLAT GLASS GROUP CO., LTD.

Chapter I General Provisions

Article 1 To improve the Company's corporate governance structure, standardize acts of electing directors, safeguard the interests of small and medium shareholders of Flat Glass Group Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the "Company") and practically guarantee the rights of public shareholders to select directors, these detailed implementation rules are formulated in accordance with the Company Law of the People's Republic of China, the Code of Corporate Governance for Listed Companies, the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on Shanghai Stock Exchange, the Articles of Association of Flat Glass Group Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the "Articles of Association").

Article 2 Cumulative voting as referred to in these implementation rules refers to a voting method used at the general meeting to elect two or more directors. Each share with voting right which is held by the shareholder shall be provided with the voting rights equal to the total number of directors that shall be elected at the general meeting and the number of voting rights that the shareholder has shall be equal to the product of the number of shares held by the shareholder with the total number of directors that shall be elected and may be used in a centralized manner, that is, the shareholder may elect one director candidate by using all voting rights in a centralized manner or exercise these voting rights in a distributed manner to cast votes for the director candidate and the director shall be determined according to the number of winning votes.

Article 3 These implementation rules are applicable to the proposal for electing or changing more than two (inclusive) directors.

Article 4 Before election of directors at the general meeting, the board of directors shall expressly state in the notice for the meeting whether the cumulative voting will be used in the election. It shall be expressly stated in the notice for the general meeting for electing independent directors that the proposal on the independent director shall be on the premise that no objection is raised against the review by the securities exchange in the place where the Company is listed; election of each director shall be listed in the notice for the general meeting in the form of independent proposal.

Article 5 "Directors" as referred to in these implementation rules shall include independent and non-independent directors. Directors appointed by employee representatives shall be democratically elected or replaced through the Company's employee representative assembly, employee assembly, or other equivalent mechanisms, and shall be governed independently of the relevant provisions set forth in these detailed implementation rules.

Chapter II Nomination of Director Candidates

Article 6 The Company shall propose a specific list of director candidates in accordance with the provisions on director nomination procedures set out in the Articles of Association.

Article 7 The director candidate shall submit to the board of directors of the Company his or her details, including but not limited to: name, gender, age, nationality, education level, work experiences, part-time work status, relationship with the nominator and whether the situation where he or she is not suitable for the post of the director exist.

Article 8 The director candidate shall make a written undertaking prior to holding of the general meeting to agree to accept the nomination and disclose his or her details and that the details of the director candidate to be disclosed are true and complete and shall guarantee that he or she will practically perform duties of the director after he or she is elected. In addition, candidate for independent director shall make a public statement to the effect that there exists no relationship between him or her and the company which affects his or her independent and objective judgment.

Article 9 Upon receipt of the details of the nominee, the board of director of the Company shall carefully review the qualifications of the nominee in accordance with relevant laws, regulations and the Articles of Association. The nominee who is qualified for serving as the independent director after review shall become the director candidate and a separate proposal shall be submitted to the general meeting for deliberation.

Article 10 The single-candidate election can be implemented for electing the director by using the cumulative voting system, that is, the number of the candidates for director shall be equal to the number of directors to be elected; or the multi-candidate election may be implemented, that is, the number of the candidates for director shall be more than the number of directors to be elected.

Chapter III Voting for or Election of Directors

Article 11 In case of cumulative voting used, prior to voting with respect to the candidate for director at the general meeting, the secretary to the board of directors shall explain and describe the cumulative voting method, vote filling method, etc. to ensure that the shareholders correctly exercise their right to cast votes.

Article 12 Specific election procedures are as follows:

(I) Method for calculating the number of votes in cumulative voting system

1. The product of the number of shares with voting rights which are held by each shareholder multiplied by the number of directors to be elected at the general meeting shall be equal to the number of the cumulative votes to be cast by the shareholder;
2. In case of multi-round elections at the general meeting, the number of cumulative votes to be cast by the shareholder shall be re-calculated based on the number of directors to be elected in each round;

3. The secretary to the board of directors of the Company shall announce the number of cumulative votes to be cast by each shareholder prior to each round of cumulative voting and any shareholder, independent director, scrutineer or witnessing attorney shall check the number of cumulative votes if they have objections regarding the results.
- (II) To ensure that the number of directors elected complies with provisions of Articles of Association, votes for independent directors and non-independent directors shall be cast

Article 13 Principles for election of directors:

1. Upon completion of voting, the scrutineer of the general meeting shall count the votes. The vote counter will upload the on-site voting results to the online voting service system for consolidated statistics. After the consolidated results of on-site and online statistics are obtained, the consolidated votes of each candidate for director will be announced in the form of resolution of the general meeting;
2. The number and structure of directors elected at the general meeting shall comply with provisions of the Articles of Association. It shall be determined whether the candidate for director wins election based on the number of won votes, provided that the number of votes of each elected director must exceed 1/2 of the shares with effective voting rights (based on the non-cumulative shares) which are held by shareholders at the general meeting;
3. If the number of votes for each candidate for director exceeds 1/2 of the shares with effective voting rights (based on the non-cumulative shares) which are held by the shareholders of the general meeting and the number of candidates for director does not exceed the number of directors to be elected, then each candidate for director shall be the director. If the number of candidates for director winning the election at the general meeting exceeds the number of directors to be elected, then the candidate with more votes shall be the director. If the number of candidates for director winning the election at the general meeting is smaller than the number of directors to be elected but the number of elected directors exceeds the number of the members of the board of directors of the Company which is as specified in the Articles of Association by more than 2/3, then the difference shall be filled by election at the next general meeting. If the number of candidates for director winning the election at the general meeting is smaller than the number of directors to be elected and is less than 2/3 of the number of members of the board of directors of the Company which is as specified in the Articles of Association, a second round of election shall be run for the candidates for directors failing the election. If the above mentioned requirements are still not met after the second round of election, another general meeting shall be held again within two months after the ending of this general meeting to elect the deficient directors.
4. If the number of candidates for director who win votes more than 1/2 of the shares with voting rights which are held by the attending shareholders is larger than the number of directors to be elected, votes shall be sorted and the candidates with more votes shall be the directors. If two or more candidates have the same number of votes, then the number of members of the board of directors exceeds the specified number if they are both elected and a second round of election shall be held for such candidates if they are not elected and the number of members of the board of directors is less than the specified number in the Articles of Association. If the winning candidate cannot be determined after second round of election, then another election shall be held at the next general meeting. If the number of members of the board of directors of the Company is smaller than 2/3 of the specified number in the Articles of Association, then another general meeting shall be held again within two months after the ending of this general meeting to elect the deficient directors.

Chapter IV Supplementary Provisions

Article 14 Any matters not covered in these implementation rules shall be subject to relevant national laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, normative documents, the rules of the stock exchange(s) on which the shares of the Company are listed and the Articles of Association. In the event that these implementation rules conflict with laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, normative documents, the rules of the stock exchange(s) on which the shares of the Company are listed or the Articles of Association, the latter shall prevail.

Article 15 The term “above” under these rules is inclusive, while “exceeding” is exclusive.

Article 16 These implementation rules shall become effective as of the date when they have been adopted at the general meeting and revision shall also become effective of the date when it has been adopted at the general meeting.

Article 17 The board of directors of the Company shall be liable to interpret these implementation rules.

(7) shareholders restricted or influenced in terms of voting right due to the share transfer agreement or other agreement that has not yet been fulfilled with the counterparty of a transaction or its related person;

(8) shareholders identified by the Company or the stock exchanges where the shares of the Company are listed to whom the Company's interest may be in their favor.

Article 14 When the related party transactions are considered at the general meeting of the Company, related shareholders shall abstain from voting, nor exercise voting rights on behalf of other shareholders.

Article 15 For the related party transactions about which the shareholders do not actively explain the related relationship and abstain, or not specified in the notice of the Board of Directors, other shareholders may require them to explain the situation and require them to abstain.

Article 16 The resolutions of the general meeting shall fully record the abstention from voting of the non-related shareholders.

Chapter 4 Procedures of Related Party Transactions

Article 17 Pursuant to relevant provisions of the Shanghai Stock Exchange Listing Rules, if the transaction between a company and related parties meets one of the following standards, it shall perform the review procedure of the Board of Directors with the consent of more than half of all the independent directors and shall disclose in a timely manner:

(1) the amount of the transaction is more than RMB0.3 million including debts and expenses incurred, in the case of a transaction with a related natural person;

(2) the amount of the transaction is more than RMB3 million including debts and expenses incurred and accounts for more than 0.5 % of the absolute value of the latest audited net assets of the listed company, in the case of a transaction with a related legal person or other organization.

Article 18 Pursuant to relevant provisions of the Shanghai Stock Exchange Listing Rules, notwithstanding Article 23 of this System, if the amount of a transaction between a company and any of its related persons is more than RMB30 million including debts and expenses incurred and accounts for more than 5% of the absolute value of the latest audited net assets of the company, the company shall disclose the audit report or appraisal report in accordance with provisions, and submit the transaction to the general meeting for deliberation.

Ordinary related transactions stipulated in this System are not required to be audited or valued.

When the Company and its related person increase or decrease the capital of a jointly invested enterprise, the amounts of investment, capital increase, and capital decrease of the Company shall be used as the calculation basis, and the relevant provisions of this System for approval authority shall be applied. If the Company and its related person make cash contributions to a jointly invested enterprise controlled by the Company in the same proportion and at the same price, and the contributions reach the standard of this Article, the audit or assessment requirements under the relevant provisions of the this System may be waived.

Where a related party transaction of the Company does not fall within the approval scope of the general meeting under this Article, but is subject to the principle of prudence of the CSRC and the Shanghai Stock Exchange, the requirements of the Articles of Association or other regulations, or the voluntary submission to the general meeting for consideration, the Company shall fulfil the consideration procedures and information disclosure obligations set out in the preceding paragraph and be subject to relevant audit or valuation requirements.

Article 19 Pursuant to relevant provisions of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange Listing Rules, subject to reporting, announcement or shareholders' approval, the connected transactions under the Hong Kong Stock Exchange Listing Rules are divided into: fully-exempted connected transactions, partly-exempted connected transactions, non-exempted connected transactions:

(1) If each of the assets ratio, profits ratio, revenue ratio, consideration ratio and share capital ratio (other than the profits ratio) for the translations between the Company and its connected persons is less than 0.1%; or if each of the assets ratio, profits ratio, revenue ratio, consideration ratio and share capital ratio (other than the profits ratio) for the translations between the Company and the connected persons of its subsidiaries is less than 1%; or if each of the above percentage ratios is less than 5%, and the total consideration (or in the case of any financial assistance, the total value of the financial assistance plus any monetary advantage to the connected person or commonly held entity) is less than HK$3 million, the transactions are fully exempt from the requirements of announcement, shareholder circular or shareholders' approval, reporting in the annual report, and annual review, but it is still required to comply with the requirements of entering into a written agreement or framework agreement.

(2) If each of the assets ratio, profits ratio, revenue ratio, consideration ratio and share capital ratio (other than the profits ratio) for the translations beyond the fully-exempted scope between the Company and its connected persons is less than 5%; or if each of the above percentage ratios is less than 25%, and the total consideration (or in the case of any financial assistance, the total value of the financial

Article 20 Pursuant to relevant provisions of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange Listing Rules, if the connected transaction requires shareholders' approval, the company must (1) set up an independent board committee (the independent board committee must consist only of independent non-executive directors who do not have a material interest in the transaction); and (2) appoint an independent financial adviser (the independent financial adviser is an intermediary agency with qualifications for dealing with securities and futures and acceptable to the Exchange) to evaluate or audit the subject of the transaction and make recommendations to the independent board committee and shareholders. The independent financial adviser will give its opinion based on the written agreement for the transaction, and issue an independent financial advice report or letter on the above matters (the contents shall include the contents as stipulated under the Rule 14A.45 under the Hong Kong Stock Exchange Listing Rules).

Article 21 Subject to the rules of the stock exchange where the shares of the Company are listed, the related party transactions beyond scope of approval by the Board of Directors or general meeting shall be approved by the president of the Company.

Article 22 The Company shall not provide financial assistance to related persons, except where financial assistance is provided to a related equity-participation company that is not controlled by the Company's controlling shareholder or de facto controller, and other shareholders of the equity-participation company would provide financial assistance on the same terms in proportion to their investment.

If the Company provides financial assistance to a related equity-participation company specified in the preceding paragraph, in addition to being considered and approved by more than half of all non-related directors, the matter must also be considered and approved by more than two-thirds of the non-related directors presenting at the board meeting, and submitted to the general meeting for consideration.

Article 23 Where the Company provides guarantee for a related person, in addition to being considered and approved by more than half of all non-related directors, the guarantee shall also be considered and approved by more than two-thirds of the non-related directors present at the board meeting and a resolution shall be made and submitted to the general meeting for consideration. For any guarantee provided by the Company for its controlling shareholders, de facto controllers and their related persons, the controlling shareholders, de facto controllers and their related persons shall provide counter-guarantees.

If a transaction causes the guaranteed party to become a related person of the Company, the Company shall perform the corresponding consideration procedures and information disclosure obligations for the existing related guarantee while implementing the transaction or related party transaction.

If the Board of Directors or the general meeting fails to consider and approve the related guarantee matters stipulated in the preceding paragraph, all parties to the transaction shall take effective measures such as early termination of the guarantee.

Article 24 The Company shall not provide loans to directors and senior management directly or through subsidiaries.

Article 25 The following related party transactions of the Company for a period of consecutive twelve months shall be aggregated, and apply the provisions about approval authority of this System:

- (1) transactions with the same related person;
- (2) transactions with different related persons under the same related transaction subject.

The same related person as mentioned above includes other related person that is under direct or indirect common control with related person by the same subject, or that there exists equity control relationship between each other. Any transaction which has performed the related obligations specified in this System will not be included in the related cumulative calculation.

In any event, the Company must comply with the provisions of the relevant listing rules on Article 27 Pursuant to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange Listing Rules, a written agreement for a continuing connected transaction must contain the basis for calculating the payments to be made. Examples include (if applicable) sharing of costs incurred by the parties, unit prices for goods or services provided, annual rental for leasing a property, or management fees based on a percentage of the total construction cost.

Article 28

Chapter 5 Internal Control of Related Party Transactions

Article 30 The changes of the relevant related natural persons and related legal persons shall be reported timely to the secretary to the Board of Directors by the shareholders, directors, and senior management who hold more than 5% shares in the Company, and the list of the related parties shall be renewed timely by the secretary to the Board of Directors so as to maintain accuracy, correctness and completeness.

When the subsidiaries (as defined under the Hong Kong Stock Exchange Listing Rules) and controlled subsidiaries of Company conducts trading activities, the relevant person-in-charge shall review the list of the related parties in details and carefully determine whether a related party transaction has been constituted. If a related party transaction has been constituted, such related party transactions shall be deemed as acts of the Company, and such person-in-charge shall perform approval procedures according to this System.

Article 31 The notifiable related party transactions shall be submitted for consideration by the Board of Directors after being discussed at the special meeting by independent directors of the Company, approved by more than half of all independent directors.

Article 32 During the consideration of related party transactions, the Company shall perform the following responsibilities:

(1) develop a detailed understanding of the actual conditions of the subject matter of the transaction, including the relevant operating conditions and profitability, and whether there exists any defect in rights (such as mortgage or freezing on assets) or any legal dispute (such as litigation or arbitration);

(2) screen the counterparties of the relevant transactions on a prudent basis by reference to their credit history, credit standings and the ability to perform duties;

(3) determine the transaction prices based on reasonable pricing principles;

(4) engage intermediaries to audit or assess the subject matters of transactions in accordance with the relevant requirements or as the Company considers necessary.

The Company shall not conduct a review and make any decision on a related party transaction where the conditions of the subject matter of the related party transaction are uncertain, or the price of transaction is yet to be finalized, or the status of the counterparty to the transaction is uncertain.

Article 33

Chapter 6 Supplementary Provisions

Article 35 In the event of any conflict between this System and relevant state laws and administrative regulations, normative documents, the listing rules of the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed and the Articles of Association, the provisions of such laws, administrative regulations, normative documents, the listing rules of the stock exchange where the shares of the Company are listed and the Articles of Association shall prevail.

(5) conditions and relevant information in relation to the guarantee applicant's provision of counter-guarantee;

(6) statement of non-existence of potential and pending major lawsuit, arbitration or administrative penalty;

(7) other important information as the Company considers it is necessary to provide.

Article 14

Chapter 3 Approval Procedures for External Guarantees

Article 16 External guarantees provided by the Company subject to consideration and approval by the Board of Directors of the Company or the general meeting.

Article 17 The board of directors of the Company shall exercise its decision-making authority over external guarantees pursuant to its authority for approval of external guarantees as stipulated in the Articles of Association. For any external guarantee beyond the approval authority of the board of directors as stipulated in the Articles of Association, the board of directors shall prepare and submit a proposal to the general meeting for approval. The board of directors shall organize, manage and implement the external guarantees approved by the general meeting.

Any matters of external guarantee within the approval authority of the board of directors subject to consideration and approval of more than half of all directors shall be considered and approved by more than two-thirds of the directors present at the board meeting.

Article 18 All external guarantees shall be subject to consideration by the board of directors. External guarantees that meet one of the following conditions shall be submitted to the general meeting for consideration and approval after they are considered and approved by the board of directors:

(1) a single guarantee with an amount exceeding 10% of the latest audited net assets of the Company;

(2) any guarantee after the total amount of external guarantees of the Company and its controlled subsidiaries exceeds 50% of the latest audited net assets of the Company;

(3) any guarantee after the total amount of external guarantees of the Company and its controlled subsidiaries exceeds 30% of the latest audited total assets of the Company;

(4) guarantees with a total amount within 12 consecutive months exceeding 30% of the latest audited total assets of the Company;

(5) a guarantee provided to guaranteed targets with a gearing ratio exceeding 70%;

(6) guarantees that are provided for shareholders, de facto controllers and their related parties;

(7) other guarantees as required by the stock exchanges of the place where the shares of the Company are listed and the Articles of Association.

When any guarantee as described in item (4) in the preceding paragraph is considered at the general meeting of the Company, it shall be approved by shareholders representing more than two-thirds of the voting rights of the shareholders in presence.

Article 19 When the Company provides guarantee to the related party and in addition to the consideration and approval of more than half of all non-related directors, it shall be considered, approved and resolved by more than two-thirds of non-related directors present at the Board meeting and submitted to the general meeting for consideration.

When a general meeting considers a guarantee proposal for any shareholder, de facto controller and their related parties, such shareholder or the shareholders controlled by the de facto controller shall not vote on such proposal, and the proposal shall be subject to the approval by voting by more than half of the voting rights represented by the other shareholders present at the general meeting.

Article 20 If the Company provides external guarantees within twelve months, such external guarantees shall be aggregated for the purpose of applying the relevant provisions of this System. If the Company has already been performed obligations in accordance with the relevant provisions of this System, such external guarantees shall no longer be included in the scope of such aggregation.

Article 21 Where the Company provides guarantees for its controlled subsidiaries and such guarantees occur frequently within a year, making it impractical to submit each guarantee agreement to the board of directors or the general meeting for consideration, the Company may estimate the total additional guarantee amount for the next twelve months separately for subsidiaries whose latest financial statements show a gearing ratio of 70% or above and for those below 70%, and submit the same to the general meeting for approval.

When the aforementioned guarantees are actually provided, the Company shall make prompt disclosure. The outstanding balance of guarantees at any point in time shall not exceed the guarantee limit approved by the general meeting.

Article 22 Where the Company provides guarantees for joint ventures or associated companies, and the guaranteed party is not a director, senior management member, shareholder holding 5% or more of the Company's shares, related party of controlling shareholder or de factor controller, and such guarantees occur frequently within a year, making it impractical to submit each guarantee agreement to the board of directors or the general meeting for consideration, the Company may make a reasonable estimate of the specific targets and corresponding additional guarantee amounts for the next twelve months and submit the same to the general meeting for approval.

When the aforementioned guarantees are actually provided, the Company shall make prompt disclosure. The outstanding balance of guarantees at any point in time shall not exceed the guarantee limit approved by the general meeting.

Article 23 When the Company estimates the guarantee limits for joint ventures or associated companies and all of the following conditions are met, adjustments of guarantee limits may be made among such joint ventures or associated companies:

(1) The amount of any single adjustment for the concerned party shall not exceed 10% of the Company's latest audited net assets;

(2) Where the gearing ratio of the guarantee target exceeds 70% at the time of adjustment, it may only receive guarantee limits from other guarantee targets whose gearing ratios also exceeded 70% at the time when the guarantee limit was considered by the general meeting;

(3) The concerned party does not have any overdue and unpaid debts or other similar circumstances at the time of adjustment;

When the aforementioned adjustments actually occur, the Company shall make disclosure in a timely manner.

Article 24 The Company may, when necessary, engage an external professional institution to evaluate the risk of an external guarantee as a basis for decision-making by the board of directors or at the general meeting.

Article 25 The Company shall enter into guarantee contracts in respect of external guarantees in writing. The Company shall also enter into counter-guarantee contracts in respect of guarantees provided to controlling shareholders, de facto controllers and its related parties. The guarantee contracts and the counter-guarantee contracts shall include contents as required by such laws and regulations as the Civil Code of the People's Republic of China.

Article 26 A guarantee contract shall at least include the followings:

- (1) the category and amount of the principal creditor's right to be guaranteed;
- (2) the term for the debtor to repay the debts;
- (3) the method of guarantee;
- (4) the scope of guarantee;
- (5) the term of guarantee;
- (6) other matters as considered necessary to be agreed upon by the parties.

Article 27 Upon entering into a guarantee contract, the Company shall comprehensively and diligently review the signatory and relevant particulars of the principal contract, the guarantee contract and counter-guarantee contract. The Company shall request the relevant party to amend any clause which may contravene laws, regulations, the regulatory authorities of the place where the shares of the Company are listed, the Articles of Association and relevant resolutions of the board of directors or the general meeting of the Company and impose unreasonable obligations or unpredictable risks on the Company. If such party refuses to amend such clauses, the Company shall decline to provide guarantee for such party and report to the board of directors or the general meeting of the Company.

Article 28 The chairman of the board of directors or other personnel legally authorized may sign guarantee contracts on behalf of the Company pursuant to the resolutions of the board of directors or the general meeting. No person shall be entitled to sign guarantee contracts on behalf of the Company without approval and authorization by the resolutions of the general meeting or the board of directors of the Company.

Article 29 Upon acceptance of a counter-guarantee mortgage or a counter-guarantee pledge, the Company shall complete the relevant legal procedures, in particular the timely registration of such mortgage or pledge and other procedures.

Article 30 If a guaranteed debt is due and extension is required, and the Company is required to further provide guarantee, guarantee consideration procedures shall be re-fulfilled as if it is a new external guarantee.

Chapter 4 Management of External Guarantees

Article 31 The financial department of the Company is the management department of the external guarantees provided by the Company. The financial department shall be responsible for the specific affairs, and the legal personnel shall be required to assist it when necessary.

Article 32 The major duties of the Company's financial department are as follows:

- (1) to investigate into and evaluate the credit status of the guaranteed entity;
- (2) to complete the formalities for the guarantee procedures;

(3) to duly keep track of, inspect and monitor the guaranteed entity after external guarantee is provided;

(4) to manage the filing of the documentation of the guaranteed enterprise seriously;

(5) to provide the Company's auditing department with a complete and accurate record of all the Company's external guarantees in a timely manner in accordance with the requirements;

(6) to handle other matters relating to the guarantees.

Article 33 The Company shall keep the guarantee contracts and relevant original materials in appropriate order and shall conduct reviews in a timely manner. The Company shall also conduct regular cross-checking with relevant institutions such as banks to ensure the completeness, accuracy and validity of the data filed, and shall take heed of the term of the guarantees. During the course of contract management, the Company shall report to the board of directors in a timely manner upon identification of any unusual contract that has not been approved in accordance with the examination procedures of the board of directors or the general meeting.

Article 34 The Company shall continuously monitor the financial conditions of and capability of debt repayment the guaranteed party. If any significant issues such as serious deterioration in the operating conditions, dissolution or division of the guaranteed party are identified, the board of directors is obligated to adopt effective measures to minimize the relevant loss. After the guaranteed debts come due, the Company shall urge the principal to repay its debts within a specified period. If the principal fails to perform its obligations on time, the Company shall take necessary countermeasures in a timely manner.

Article 35 In the event that the guaranteed party to which the Company provides guarantee fails to honor the obligation to repay debts timely upon maturity, or such guaranteed party becomes bankrupt or goes into liquidation or the creditors claim against the Company for performance of the guarantee obligations, the Company's responsible department shall make inquiry on the status of debt repayment of the guaranteed party in a timely manner, and simultaneously report such matter to the board secretary, who shall promptly inform the board of directors of the Company of the same.

Article 36 In the event that the guaranteed party fails to fulfill its contractual obligations and its creditor requests the Company to fulfill its guarantee obligation, the Company's responsible department shall activate the counter-guarantee claiming procedures instantly and simultaneously report such matter to the board secretary, who shall inform the board of directors of the Company of the same promptly.

Article 37 Upon fulfillment of the guarantee obligations for the debtor, the Company shall take effective measures to demand repayment from the debtor. The Company's responsible department shall report the repayment status to the board secretary, who shall promptly inform the board of directors of the Company of the same.

Article 38 If it becomes evident to the Company that the guaranteed party has lost or is likely to lose its capability of debt repayment, the Company shall take necessary measures in a timely manner for effective risk control. Where malicious collusion between the creditor and the debtor that impairs the Company's interests is identified, the Company shall take prompt measures such as requesting confirmation of the nullification of the guarantee contract. The Company shall claim against the guaranteed party in a timely manner for any financial losses due to the default of the guaranteed party.

Article 39 In response to other potential risks, the financial department and legal department of the Company shall adopt effective measures and propose corresponding measures for review by responsible leaders, who shall then submit such measures to the president and the board of directors of the Company, as the case may be.

Article 40 If the Company acts as one of the guarantors for a debt that has been secured by two or more guarantors and it is agreed that the guarantors shall take their respective guarantee obligations in proportion, the Company shall refuse to undertake any guarantee obligation beyond and additional to the agreed proportion.

Article 41 After the people's court accepts a debtor's bankruptcy case, if the creditor fails to declare the claims, the relevant department of the Company shall request the Company to participate in the distribution of the bankruptcy property and exercise the right of recovery in advance.

Chapter 5 Disclosure of External Guarantee Information

Article 42 In compliance with relevant laws and regulations, relevant provisions of the securities regulatory authorities or the place where the shares of the Company are listed, the Company shall conscientiously perform information disclosure obligations in relation to external guarantees.

Article 43 Any department or responsible person engaged in external guarantee matters of the Company shall have the responsibility to report the information about external guarantee to the board secretary of the Company timely and provide the documents and information necessary for the information disclosure.

Article 44 As regards the external guarantees considered and approved by the board of directors or the general meeting of the Company, the relevant disclosure shall be made through the website of the stock exchanges of the place where the shares of the Company are listed and the media that meets the conditions stipulated by the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council. The contents to be disclosed shall include but not be limited to the resolutions of the board of directors or the general meeting, and the following information on the total amount of external guarantees provided by the Company and its controlled subsidiaries and the total amount of guarantee provided by the Company to its controlled subsidiaries as of the information disclosure date.

If the guaranteed party fails to perform the debt repayment obligation within 15 trading days upon the maturity of debts or it is in bankruptcy or liquidation or faces other situations that substantially affect its solvency, the Company shall make relevant disclosure in a timely manner.

Article 45 The Company's relevant department shall take necessary measures to minimize the number of personnel to whom such information is available before the disclosure of information on guarantee in accordance with laws. Any person who is aware of the Company's guarantee information through legal or illegal approaches shall be subject to the inherent obligations for confidentiality until the day when such information is disclosed in accordance with laws, failing which he shall assume any legal liability arising therefrom.

Chapter 6 Responsibilities of Responsible Person

Article 46 The Company shall strictly comply with this System in respect of the provision of external guarantees. The board of directors of the Company shall impose corresponding penalties on the responsible person at fault in respect of the loss, scale of the risk, and the seriousness of the case.

Article 47 Any director, general manager or other senior management member of the Company who entered into a guarantee contract beyond their authority and without abiding by the provisions of this System shall be held accountable.

Article 48 Any responsible department officers or other responsible persons who breach the provisions of laws, regulations or this System, neglect the risks and provide guarantees without authorization causing losses to the Company, shall assume liability for compensation. If the Company's responsible department officers or other responsible persons fail to fulfill their duties and cause losses to the Company, they shall be subject to economic punishment or sanctions depending on the seriousness of the case.

Article 49 Where a guarantor is free from guarantee liability under the law, but due to the acts of the Company's responsible department officers or other responsible persons beyond their scope of authorization, the Company subsequently assumes extra liability and losses, the above persons shall assume liability for compensation and shall be subject to sanctions by the Company.

Chapter 7 Supplementary Provisions

Article 50 In this System, term "above" includes the stated number; term "more than" excludes the stated number.

Article 52 In the event of any conflict between this System and relevant state laws and administrative regulations, normative documents, the listing rules of the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed and the Articles of Association, the provisions of such laws, administrative regulations, normative documents, the listing rules of the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed and the Articles of Association shall prevail.

Article 52 This System and any amendment thereto shall become effective and be implemented upon being considered by the board of directors and approved by the general meeting of the Company.

Article 53 The board of directors of the Company shall be responsible for the interpretation of this System.

Article 3 The proceeds shall be carefully used by the Company in accordance with the purposes listed in the prospectus or other public offering documents and the purpose shall not be changed without authorization.

The Company shall make true, accurate and complete disclosure of the actual use of the proceeds. In case of any situation having a serious impact on the normal operation of the proceeds investment plan, the Company shall make a relevant announcement in a timely manner.

As to a project in which the proceeds are invested (“Proceeds Investment Project”) implemented through the Company’s subsidiaries or other entities controlled by the Company, the Company shall ensure compliance with this System by such subsidiaries or such other enterprises controlled by it.

Article 4 The board of directors of the Company shall continue to pay attention to the deposit, management and use of proceeds, effectively prevent investment risks and improve the efficiency of the use of proceeds. The directors and senior management of the Company shall perform their duties diligently to ensure the security of the Company’s proceeds and shall not manipulate the Company for an unauthorized or disguised change of the use of proceeds.

Article 5 The accounting department of the Company shall set up a ledger for the use of proceeds, and record in detail the expenditure of proceeds and the Proceeds Investment Projects.

The internal audit department of the Company shall inspect the deposit and use of proceeds at least once every half year, and report the results of inspection to the audit committee in a timely manner.

If the audit committee of the Company is of the view that there are non-compliance or material risks in the management of the proceeds by the Company, or the internal audit department has not submitted a report on the results of inspection in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph, it shall report to the board of directors in a timely manner. The board of directors shall, after receiving the report, report to the stock exchanges where the Shares of the Company are listed and make an announcement in a timely manner.

Article 6 The controlling shareholders, de facto controllers and other related parties of the Company shall not occupy the proceeds of the Company, nor use the proceeds of the Company and the Proceeds Investment Projects to obtain improper benefits.

If the Company finds that the controlling shareholder, controller and other related persons occupy the proceeds, it shall timely request them to return the proceeds, and disclose the reasons for the occupation, the impact on the Company, the settlement and rectification plan, and the rectification progress.

Article 7 Sponsors should follow the Administrative Measures for the Sponsorship Business of the Issuance and Listing of Securities and this System to perform sponsorship duties and implement the continuous supervision of management and use of proceeds of the Company.

Article 8 Where the use of proceeds is subject to information disclosure, it shall be implemented in accordance with the Information Disclosure System of the Company.

Chapter 2 Deposit of Proceeds

Article 9 The Company implements a special deposit system for the proceeds. The Company shall prudently select a commercial bank and open a special account for proceeds ("Special Account"). Proceeds shall be deposited in a Special Account opened as determined by the Board of the Directors for centralized management and use. The Special Account shall not be used for depositing funds other than the proceeds or for other purposes.

If the Company has undertaken two or more fund raising activities, it shall open a Special Account for proceeds separately for each activity. The Excess Fund shall also be deposited in the Special Account for proceeds for management.

Article 10 After the proceeds are in place, the Company shall go through the capital verification formalities in time, and obtain a capital verification report issued by the accounting firm in accordance with the relevant requirements of the Securities Law. The asset appraisal institution shall evaluate the physical assets and issue an appraisal report. The ownership of the assets has been transferred to the Company.

Where there are other provisions in laws, regulations or securities regulatory rules in the place where the shares of the Company are listed, such provisions shall prevail.

Article 11 The Company shall sign the tripartite supervision agreement (the "Tripartite Agreement") with the sponsors or independent financial advisers and the commercial bank in which the proceeds are deposited (the "Commercial Bank") within one month after the proceeds are transferred to the account and make a timely announcement. The Tripartite Agreement shall at least include the following contents:

- (1) The Company shall deposit all proceeds into the Special Account;
- (2) Account number of the Special Account, the projects funded by the proceeds related to the Special Account and the amount deposited;
- (3) If the Company withdraws more than RMB50 million at one time or in aggregate within 12 months from the Special Account for deposit of proceeds, and the amount reaches 20% of net proceeds deducting the issuing expense from the total proceeds (the "Net Proceeds"), the Company shall promptly notify the sponsors or independent financial advisers;

(4) The Commercial Bank shall provide the Company bank statements of the Special Account on a monthly basis and make a copy for the sponsors or independent financial advisers;

(5) The sponsors or independent financial advisers may visit the Commercial Bank for access of the information related to the Special Account for deposit of proceeds any time;

(6) The supervision duties of the sponsors or independent financial advisers, the notification and cooperation duties of the Commercial Bank, the supervision method of the sponsors or independent financial advisers and the Commercial Bank on the use of the proceeds of the Company;

(7) Liability for breach of contract of the Company, the Commercial Bank and the sponsors or independent financial advisers;

(8) In case of the Commercial Bank's failure, for three times, to timely provide bank statements to the sponsors or independent financial advisers, and failure to meet the sponsors' or independent financial advisers' request to inquire and investigate into information on the Special Account, the Company may terminate the agreement and cancel such Special Account for deposit of proceeds.

If the Company implements a Proceeds Investment Project through its controlled subsidiary, the Company, the controlled subsidiary implementing the Proceeds Investment Project, the Commercial Bank and the sponsor or the independent financial adviser shall jointly enter into a Tripartite Agreement, and the Company and its controlled subsidiary shall be deemed as a joint party.

If the Tripartite Agreement is terminated before the expiry date, the Company shall sign a new agreement with relevant parties within two weeks from the date of termination of the agreement, and promptly make an announcement.

Article 12 If proceeds are invested in overseas projects, in addition to being in compliance with the provisions of this System, the Company and sponsors shall also take effective measures to ensure the security and regulatory-compliant utilization of proceeds invested in overseas projects, and disclose the relevant specific measures and actual results in the Special Report on the Deposit, Management and Actual Use of Proceeds of the Company (the "Special Report on Proceeds").

Chapter 3 Use of Proceeds

Article 13 The Company can use the proceeds after entering into the Tripartite Agreement. The proceeds should be used for specific purposes. The Company's use of proceeds should comply with national industrial policies and relevant laws and regulations, practice the concept of sustainable development, and fulfill its social responsibilities. In principle, the proceeds should be used for Company's main business, which will help enhance its competitiveness and innovation capabilities. The Company shall not perform the followings when using proceeds:

(1) Except for financial enterprises, carrying out financial investments such as financial assets held for trading, other equity instrument investments, provision of loans and entrusted wealth management, as well as direct or Indirect investment in companies that engage in trading of marketable securities as their principal business;

(2) Change the use of proceeds in disguised form by way of pledges, entrusted loans or other means;

(3) Make available the proceeds, whether directly or indirectly, to controlling shareholder(s), de facto controller(s) and other related parties, or provide convenience to related parties for improper gains from the Proceeds Investment Projects;

(4) Other acts that violate the provisions on the management of proceeds.

Article 14 If one of the following situations occurs for any Investment Project, the Company shall promptly re-assess the feasibility and expected return of the Proceeds Investment Project to determine whether the implementation of the Proceeds Investment Project should proceed:

(1) Significant changes in the market environment relating to the Proceeds Investment Project;

(2) After proceeds are received, the suspension of the Proceeds Investment Project has been for over 1 year;

(3) The time of completion for the investment plan of proceeds has elapsed and the investment amount has not reached 50% of relevant expected amount;

(4) Occurrence of other abnormalities for the Proceeds Investment Project.

If the Company identifies the circumstances specified in the preceding paragraphs, it shall disclose them in a timely manner. If adjustments are required, the adjusted investment plan of proceeds shall also be disclosed. If any change is involved, the relevant deliberation procedures for changing the use of proceeds shall apply.

The Company shall disclose in its annual reports and interim reports the specific circumstances of the re-examination of Investment Project during the reporting period.

Article 15 Where the Proceeds Investment Project expected to fail to be completed within the originally scheduled timeframe and the Company proposes to extend its implementation period, such extension shall be subject to timely review and approval by the board of directors, and the sponsor or independent financial advisor shall issue a clear opinion. The Company shall promptly disclose the specific reasons for the failure to complete as scheduled, the current deposit status and accounting records of the proceeds, whether any circumstances exist that may affect the normal progress of the proceeds utilization plan, the expected completion timeline and phased investment schedule and relevant measures to ensure on-schedule completion following the extension.

Article 16 When the Company uses the proceeds for the following purposes, the usage shall be considered and approved by the board of directors, and the Company shall make timely disclosure after giving an explicit opinion by the sponsors or independent financial advisers:

(1) Using proceeds to replace self-raised funds invested for the Investment Project;

(2) Using temporarily idle proceeds for cash management;

(3) Using temporarily idle proceeds for temporary replenishment of liquidity;

(4) Changing the use of the proceeds;

(5) Using Excess Fund for projects under construction and new projects, the repurchase and cancellation of the Company's shares in accordance with the laws;

In the event of the circumstances stipulated in items (4) and (5) of the preceding paragraph, such subjects shall also be considered and approved by the general meeting. Where any related transaction, asset acquisition or external investment is involved, the review procedure and disclosure obligation shall be performed in accordance with the rules of the stock exchanges where the Shares of the Company are listed and the relevant rules and regulations of the Company.

Article 17 If the Company replaces its self-raised funds invested in Investment Projects in advance with proceeds, such replacement shall be subject to review and approval by the board of directors, the sponsor shall issue a clear opinion, the Company shall promptly disclose relevant information. The Company in principle shall implement such replacement within six months after proceeds have been transferred to a Special Account.

During the implementation of the Proceeds Investment Project, funds shall in principle be paid directly from proceeds. Where direct payment from proceeds is indeed difficult for matters such as payment of staff salaries or purchase of overseas products and equipment, replacement with proceeds may be implemented within six months after the self-raised funds are used for payment.

Article 18 The Company may conduct cash management of temporarily idle proceeds, and the cash management shall be implemented through a Special Account for proceeds or a publicly disclosed product-specific settlement account. If cash management is implemented through a product-specific settlement account, the account shall not be used to deposit non-issuance proceeds or for other purposes. The implementation of cash management shall not affect the normal implementation of the investment plan of the proceeds. Cash management products must meet the following conditions:

- (1) Products with high security, such as structured deposits and certificates of deposit, can not be non-principal-guaranteed products;
- (2) High liquidity, with the product maturity not exceeding twelve months;
- (3) Cash management products may not be pledged.

Only after the due funds of the cash management products as stipulated in the preceding paragraph are returned on schedule and make an announcement, can the Company carry out cash management again within the authorized period and amount.

When the Company opens or cancels a special settlement account for investment products, it shall make an announcement in a timely manner.

Article 19 When the Company uses temporarily idle proceeds for cash management, it should do so after obtaining approval from the board of directors, with explicit opinions provided by sponsors or independent financial advisers, and the Company shall announce the following contents after consideration by the board of directors:

- (1) Basic information of the proceeds, including the fundraising time, amount of proceeds, Net Proceeds and investment plans;
- (2) Status of the use of proceeds;
- (3) Approved quota and duration of cash management, whether there is any disguised change in the use of proceeds, and measures to ensure that the normal progress of the Proceeds Investment Project is not affected;

(4) Methods of profit distribution, scope of investment and safety of cash management products;

(5) Opinions issued by sponsors or independent financial advisers.

The Company shall make an announcement of risk reminder timely and indicate the risk control measures adopted by the Company to guarantee the safety of the funds in the event of circumstances that may harm the interests of the listed company and investors, such as if financial conditions of the issuer have deteriorated and product invested has suffered losses.

Article 20 The Company may temporarily use the idle proceeds to replenish working capital, such uses shall be carried out through the Special Account and shall comply with the following requirements:

(1) The use of proceeds shall not be changed in disguised form and the normal progress of the proceeds investment plan shall not be affected;

(2) The proceeds shall only be applied to production and operation related to the principal business;

(3) The duration of any single temporary replenishment of working capital may not be in excess of 12 months;

(4) The amount of any previous use of the proceeds for replenishment of working capital has been replenished by the due date (if applicable).

Prior to the maturity date for the replenishment of working capital, the Company shall return such proceeds to the Special Account and promptly publish an announcement on the repayment status of the proceeds.

Article 21 The Company should properly arrange the use plan of Excess Fund based on the Company's development plan and actual production and operation needs. The Excess Fund should be used for ongoing projects and new projects, repurchase and lawful cancellation of the Company's shares. The Company shall clarify the specific use plan of the Excess Fund at the latest when the same batch of Investment Projects are completed as a whole, and shall allocate and utilize the fund according to the plan.

Article 22 The use of Excess Fund shall be resolved by the board of directors in accordance with the law, the sponsors shall express explicit opinions and submit it to the general meeting for deliberation, and the Company shall promptly and fully disclose relevant information such as the necessity and rationality of using Excess Fund. If the Company uses the Excess Fund for ongoing projects and new projects, it should fully disclose information of relevant projects, such as the implementation plan, investment cycle, rate of return, etc.

If it is really necessary to use temporarily idle Excess Fund for cash management or temporary replenishment of working capital, the necessity and rationality should be explained. If the Company uses temporarily idle Excess Fund for cash management or to temporarily replenish working capital, matters such as the approved quota and duration shall be reviewed and approved by the board of directors, the sponsors shall express explicit opinions, and the Company shall disclose relevant information in a timely manner.

Article 23 Subsequent to the completion of a single Proceeds Investment Project, any proposed use of remaining proceeds (including interest income) in this Investment Project by the Company for the purpose of any other Investment Projects shall be subject to the consideration and approval of the board of directors, with explicit opinions provided by sponsors or independent financial advisers. The Company shall make an announcement in a timely manner after the consideration of the board of directors.

If the remaining proceeds (including interest income) is less than RMB1 million, or less than 5% of the promised investment amount of the proceeds for the said project, the procedure in the preceding paragraph can be waived, provided that usage details should be disclosed in the annual report.

For the use of the remaining proceeds (including interest income) of any single Proceeds Investment Project for purposes other than the Proceeds Investment Projects (including replenishment of working capital), the corresponding procedural and disclosure obligations for the change of Investment Projects shall apply.

Article 24 Upon completion of all of the Proceeds Investment Projects, the remaining proceeds (including interest income) shall be used by the Company after the consideration and approval of the board of directors, with explicit opinions provided by sponsors or independent financial advisers. The Company shall make an announcement in a timely manner after the consideration of the Board. If the remaining proceeds (including interest income) account for more than 10% of the Net Proceeds, their use shall also be considered and approved by the general meeting.

If the remaining proceeds (including interest income) is less than RMB5 million, or less than 5% of the Net Proceeds, the procedure in the preceding paragraph can be waived, provided that usage details should be disclosed in the latest periodic report.

Article 25 The Proceeds Investment Project shall be implemented in accordance with the scheduled progress of the proceeds investment plan. The Company's project department shall establish a project management system to inspect and supervise fund application, project progress and project engineering quality, and maintain corresponding project files. The Company's finance department shall establish and improve relevant accounting records and original accounts for activities involving the use of proceeds, and regularly inspect and supervise the usage status and effectiveness of the proceeds.

Chapter 4 Changes in the Use of Proceeds

Article 26 The Company shall not alter the purpose of proceeds without adhering to the requirements of the laws and regulations, the regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and the Articles of Association of the Company. If it becomes necessary to alteration the purpose of the use of proceeds due to market changes, such purposes can be altered only when such alternation has been considered by the Board of Directors, approved by the general meeting in accordance with statutory procedures, with express consent from the sponsors or the independent financial advisers, approved by the relevant authorities (if necessary), and disclosed in accordance with Shanghai Stock Exchange Listing Rules, Hong Kong Stock Exchange Listing Rules and other regulatory requirements. Related directors or shareholders shall not abstain from voting where such alteration involves related transactions.

Article 27 The Company shall use its proceeds in accordance with the purposes specified in the prospectus or other public offering documents, and shall not alter such purposes without authorization. Any of the following circumstances shall be deemed an alteration of the use of proceeds, which shall be resolved by the board of directors in accordance with applicable laws, supported by a clear opinion from the sponsor, and submitted to the general meeting for approval. The Company shall promptly disclose the relevant information:

- (1) Cancellation or termination of the original Proceeds Investment Project and implementation of a new project or permanently replenish working capital;
- (2) Change of the subject of implementation of the Proceeds Investment Project;
- (3) Change of the implementation methods of the Proceeds Investment Project;
- (4) Any other circumstance recognized by the CSRC.

Where the Company falls under item (1) of the preceding paragraph, the sponsor shall provide a detailed explanation of the primary reasons for the change in the Proceeds Investment Project and the rationale for its prior sponsorship opinion, with reference to the previously disclosed proceeds related documents.

A change in the subject of implementation of the Proceeds Investment Project between the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, or solely involving a change in the implementation location, shall not be deemed an alteration of the use of proceeds. Such changes shall be resolved by the board of directors without requiring approval by the general meeting, but the sponsor shall issue a clear opinion, and the Company shall promptly disclose the relevant information.

If the Company's use of proceeds under relevant provisions of this System exceeds the amount or timeframe approved by the board of directors, and such breach is material, it shall be deemed an unauthorized alteration of the use of proceeds.

Article 28 The Company should make an announcement with details of the following after submitting the proposed change of the Proceeds Investment Project to the board of directors for consideration:

(1)The basic information of the original Investment Project and the specific reasons for the change;

Article 31 Except that the Proceeds Investment Project has been transferred to an external party or replaced in the implementation of major asset restructuring by the Company, where an Investment Project is intended to be transferred to an external party or replaced, the Company should, after considered by the board of directors, announce the following in a timely manner:

- (1) The specific reasons for the external transfer or replacement of the Proceeds Investment Project;
- (2) The amount invested in the project from the proceeds;
- (3) The progress and realized profits of the project;
- (4) Basic information, feasibility analysis and reminders of risks (if applicable) of the new project after replacement;
- (5) Pricing basis and related profit of the transfer or replacement;
- (6) Opinions of sponsors or independent financial advisers on the transfer or replacement of the Proceeds Investment Project;
- (7) Explanation that the transfer or replacement of the Proceeds Investment Project requires approval at the general meeting.

The Company should pay full attention to the receipt and use of the proceeds from the transfer, as well as the ownership changes and continuous operation of the newly-replaced assets, and perform the necessary obligations of information disclosure as required.

Chapter 5 Management and Supervision of Proceeds

Article 32 The board of directors of the Company shall continuously keep track of the actual management and use of proceeds and Excess Fund (if any), conduct a comprehensive inspection of the progress of the Proceeds Investment Project every six months, and prepare, review and disclose the Special Report on Proceeds of the Company. Relevant special report shall include the basic information of proceeds and Excess Fund and the deposit, management and use of proceeds as stipulated in the rules. In case of inconsistency between the actual investment progress and the investment plan for the Proceeds Investment Project, the Company shall explain the specific reasons in the Special Report on Proceeds.

During the annual audit, the Company shall engage an accounting firm to issue an assurance report

Article 34 The sponsors or independent financial advisers shall, in accordance with the Administrative Measures for the Sponsorship Business of the Issuance and Listing of Securities, continuously supervise the deposit, management and use of the proceeds raised by the Company. If any abnormal situation is found in the continuous supervision, on-site verification shall be carried out in a timely manner. The sponsors or independent financial advisers shall conduct on-site verification of the deposit, management and use of the proceeds raised by the Company at least every half year. If the sponsors or independent financial advisers find any abnormal situation in continuous supervision and on-site verification, they shall report to the stock exchanges where the Shares of the Company are listed and relevant regulatory departments in a timely manner.

After the conclusion of each fiscal year, the sponsors or the independent financial advisers shall issue a special audit report on the deposit, management and use of proceeds of the Company for the year, and the audit report shall be disclosed when the Company discloses its annual report. The audit report should contain the following contents:

- (1) The deposit, management and use of proceeds and balance of the Special Account;
- (2) Progress of the Proceeds Investment Project, including the deviation from the progress of the proceeds investment plan;
- (3) Replacement of the self-raised funds invested in the Proceeds Investment Project (if applicable);
- (4) Replenishment of working capital with idle proceeds and the effects (if applicable);
- (5) Cash management of idle proceeds (if applicable);
- (6) Use of Excess Fund (if applicable);
- (7) Changes in the use of proceeds (if applicable);
- (8) Use of remaining proceeds (if applicable);
- (9) Conclusive comments on the compliance of the deposit, management and use of proceeds;
- (10) Other information required by the stock exchanges where the Shares of the Company are listed.

After the conclusion of each fiscal year, the board of directors of the Company shall disclose the specific audit report of the sponsors or the independent financial advisers and conclusive comments in the authentication report of the accounting firm in the Specific Report on Proceeds.

The Company shall cooperate with the sponsors for their continuous supervision, on-site inspection and with the accounting firms for their audit work, and provide, or apply to the bank to provide necessary information related to the deposit, management and use of proceeds.

If the sponsor or the independent financial adviser finds that the Company and the Commercial Bank have not performed the agreement in accordance with the Tripartite Agreement, or discovers significant non-compliance or major risks in the management of the Company's proceeds during the on-site inspection, it shall urge the Company to promptly rectify and report the stock exchanges where the Shares of the Company are listed.

Chapter 6 Accountability

Article 35 If relevant responsible person violates the provisions of this System, the Company shall, based on the severity of the case and the losses and impact on the Company, impose disciplinary actions and penalties including criticism, warning, or even changes his/her position on the relevant responsible person, and the Company shall have the right to demand compensation from such responsible person for any losses caused to the Company. If the cases are serious, the Company shall report such cases to the regulatory departments for investigation and punishment.

Chapter 7 Supplementary Provisions

Article 36 In this System, term “above” includes the stated number; term “more than” excludes the stated number.

Article 37 In the event of any conflict between this System and relevant state laws and administrative regulations, normative documents, the listing rules of the stock exchange where the Company’s shares are listed and the Articles of Association, the provisions of such laws, administrative regulations, normative documents, the listing rules of the stock exchange where the Company’s shares are listed and the Articles of Association shall prevail.

Article 38 This System and any amendment thereto shall become effective and be implemented upon being considered and approved by the general meeting of the Company.

Article 39 The board of directors of the Company shall be responsible for the interpretation of this System.
